Transitional Arrangement

- Students passed the Certificate Level II examination, the former Intermediate examination or the Professional I examination are eligible to apply for the Business Level examinations. They are exempted from the Executive Level and KB 4 of Business Level. Those who are exempted from the Certificate Level II Examination under any other qualification are also eligible to apply the Business Level Examination.

- Students passed the former Final I examination are required to pass KB 5 to complete the Business Level and KC2, KC3, KC4 and KC5 to complete Corporate Level. Students referred in Final I examination are required to pass the corresponding subject too, in addition to the subjects mentioned above. These students should sit for the KB1 paper of the Business Level if they wish to obtain the Senior Business Accountant certificate.

- Students who have passed the former Professional II examination are required to pass KB2, KB5 to complete the Business Level and KC2, KC4 and KC5 to complete the Corporate Level.

Students are permitted to apply for single subject/s at a time, and the subject/s that passed will be carried forward. (This rule is applicable to the students who have obtained exemptions on account of CIMA or ACCA as well). They should sit and pass all the subjects in Business Level and Corporate Level other than the exempted under any approved reason. Students who have obtained Permanent Credits for some subject/s of Final I or II will be treated as having passed the corresponding subject/s in Business and Corporate Levels according to the mapping under 2010 syllabus (Strategic Level I or II). (Those students should have obtained two permanent credits at a time before 2014 and single permanent credit from 2005). They should sit and pass all the subjects in Business Level and Corporate Level other than the exempted under any approved reason.

If students have passed four subjects in Strategic Level I (or if there are students remaining with two subjects including Strategic Management Process) under previous syllabus are eligible to sit Corporate Level together with the Business level. However it is mandatory to apply Corporate level subjects together with all the Business level subjects which they have to sit and pass. However pillar concept rule is applicable always. All the other students should complete the Business level first. They are not permitted to apply Corporate level together with the Business level until they complete the Business level.
