Following two highly successful and sold out four-day Global Leadership Programmes held in June and September 2011, the third CA Sri Lanka – INSEAD global leadership programme will be held during 14th -17th March 2012.

The third intake is also aimed at high-end professionals and business leaders who will see a thought provoking outline of topics covering a wide array of areas, aimed at enhancing the leadership qualities of the country's corporate movers and shakers.

The four-day programme to be held from 14th -17th March 2012 will be conducted by the same resource person, Dr. Thomas Mannarelli renowned Professor of Leadership from the faculty of the INSEAD Business School.

For further information or to confirm your participation, please contact the CA Sri Lanka Business School on 2352000 ext 249.

PARTICIPANTS' FEEDBACK

"It was an extremely well organized program and I congratulate ICASL for its contribution in this regard. With regards to the program itself, and the content, it was one of the better delivered programs that I have attended. The quality of the presentation and presenter, its delivery and direction was great. All in all, I would highly recommend it to colleagues. "
